To us, you're more than just the sum of your grades, GPA and a list of extracurricular activities. To give the Admission Committee a glimpse into you beyond the facts and figures, tell us (on a separate sheet, and in at least 250 words) something special about yourself, such as:

- What you're passionate about.
- What you hope to be in the years ahead.
- Something unusual about yourself and/or your family.
- A defining moment in your life.
- Anything else that will help us get to know you better.

Alternatively, you may submit a graded college essay you've written.
